BRADLEY'S PYRAMIDS

ENGLISH BLEND NO.01
The English Blend owes its name to the British. A full, powerful flavour thanks to the classic blend of the best teas from Sri Lanka makes our Bradley's English Blend so much more than just an everyday tea!

EARL GREY NO.12
Named after the British Earl Charles Grey. This is a timeless classic for true tea lovers. Of course, you drink this tea with your little finger up. A hint of bergamot ensures that fresh taste.

BLACK TEA RED FRUITS NO.34
The perfect balance between black tea's natural bitterness and the sweetness of red fruits. This tea is perfect for afternoon tea, and it's delicious with a pastry on the side.

ROOIBOS NO.04
Bright red South African Rooibos with its naturally slightly sweet flavour is becoming increasingly popular in western countries. Particularly among health-conscious tea drinkers. Rooibos is just brimming with antioxidants, and it is caffeine-free

GINGER CITRUS NO.19
A delicious infusion for any time of the day. The ginger gives this mix a subtle spicy taste that pairs beautifully with the refreshing taste of lemon and apple.

GREEN TEA LEMON NO.55
This lively and refreshing green tea has its origins in China. The addition of lemongrass gives the aftertaste a surprisingly fresh and mild flavour.

MOROCCAN MINT NO.46
This moroccan mint infusion is widely drunk in Arab countries. It is characterised by a subtle hint of spice mixed with the fresh flavour of mint. The infusion is caffeine-free, and therefore highly recommended after dinner.

GOLDEN CHAI NO.35
Golden Chai is wrapped in festive gold and features the number 35. The blend is full of spices such as cinnamon and cardamom, with a delicious hint of vanilla.
