ENGLISH BLEND

NO.01

The English Blend owes its name to the British. A full, powerful flavour thanks to the classic blend of the best teas from India and Sri Lanka, makes our Bradley's English Blend so much more than just an everyday tea!

EARL GREY

NO.12

Named after the British Earl Charles Grey. This is a timeless classic for true tea lovers. Of course, you drink this tea with your little finger up. A hint of bergamot ensures that fresh taste.

BLACK TEA RED FRUITS

NO.34

The perfect balance between black tea's natural bitterness and the sweetness of red fruits. This tea is perfect for afternoon tea, and it's delicious with a pastry on the side.

ROOIBOS

NO.04

Bright red South African Rooibos with its naturally slightly sweet flavour is becoming increasingly popular in western countries. Particularly among health-conscious tea drinkers. Rooibos is just brimming with antioxidants, and it is caffeine-free

GINGER CITRUS

NO.19

A delicious infusion for any time of the day. The ginger gives this mix a subtle spicy taste that pairs beautifully with the refreshing taste of lemon and apple.

GREEN TEA LEMON

NO.55

This lively and refreshing green tea has its origins in China. The addition of lemongrass gives the aftertaste a surprisingly fresh and mild flavour.

GOLDEN CHAI

NO.35

Golden Chai is wrapped in festive gold and features the number 35. The blend is full of spices such as cinnamon and cardamom, with a delicious hint of vanilla.

CAMOMILE

NO.26

Indulge in our pure herbal tea with its sweet and mild flavour. Relax and unwind, imagining yourself strolling through fragrant flower fields on a sunny spring day. Bradley's chamomile does not contain caffeine.

OO LONG LEMON RASPBERRY

NO.22

Oolong is a semi-oxidised tea and therefore fits in between black and green tea. The typically nutty character of the oolong combined with the sweet twist of raspberry and the freshness of lemon makes for a surprising taste experience.

MOROCCAN MINT

NO.46

This moroccan mint infusion is widely drunk in Arab countries. It is characterised by a subtle hint of spice mixed with the fresh flavour of mint. The infusion is caffeine-free, and therefore highly recommended after dinner.

GREEN TEA JASMINE

NO.08

With its floral fragrance and subtle sweetness, this is the most popular tea in East Asia. The beautiful white jasmine flower has a huge impact on the flavour character of green tea. Its petals endow the tea with a delicate and refreshing taste.

GREEN SENCHA

NO.87

Green Sencha is considered the drink of hospitality in Japan. Sencha is characterised as a smooth tea with a delicate flavour and its fresh green colour. Sencha literally means 'soaked tea', referring to the process by which this tea is made.

RED FRUIT INFUSION

NO.93

Pamper yourself with this rich infusion of rose hips, raspberry and blackcurrant. This 100% fruit infusion naturally contains no caffeine, and is therefore excellent for drinking throughout the day.
